My name is Gerald C. Clark, Jr. and I have spoken with you a few times regarding a manuscript on the Collar Bomb, MC 203 case I co-authored with Ed Palattella, an investigative reporter for the Erie Times News.

I retired from the FBI [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] This b6 -1

book is strictly in the violent crime arena and does not disparage the Bureau (I love the FBI) or give away any trade secrets.

Anyone from law enforcement whose name is mentioned in the manuscript has been contacted and in some cases interviewed for their input. These include [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] b6 -1, -2, -3

Ed and I have meticulously attempted to be accurate, credible and consistent with the facts that were involved in the investigation of this bizarre and complex case. I hope you enjoy the manuscript and eagerly look forward to receiving approval from the FBI.

Thank you,

Jerry Clark

ATF Assistant Director Mark Potter, former special agent in charge of the ATF Philadelphia field division, has reviewed the manuscript. He finds nothing in the manuscript that would preclude its publication. ATF therefore approves the manuscript.

Thanks for your patience and the opportunity to review the document.

Best regards,
Drew
